Abstract Writing Help

We follow according to the specific university or publishers guidelines across the United States, United Kingdom, Australia, and other Asian Universities.

An Introduction to the Topic

A Brief description of the topic, research questions, and research objectives. The section would provide necessary background information and provides readers with some sense of overall research including general territory, broad foundation (existing literature), the general scope, overview of the sections and finally should engage the readers.

Aim and Overall Objective / Hypotheses

A description what research want to achieve from carrying out this research. The section includes a clear statement of the research objectives, questions that researcher seeks to answer or the hypothesis. The section also includes original contributions of your study, with a detailed account of the points summarized in the introduction, and rationale.

Brief background with literature

This should provide some insights on (a) studies that have been conducted previously in your research field (b) familiarity with major themes, (c) the range of theories scholars use to analyse their primary sources (d) gaps identified in the literature (e) further investigations you intend to pursue as part of this dissertation and (f) best methodologies.

A brief research methodology

The section is essential to the good abstract. This section includes the overall methodological approach, Research design, strategy, qualitative or quantitative, research philosophy, target area, population, sample size, primary or secondary data collection, ethical consideration, pilot study, validity, reliability, & statistical analysis.

A brief Results / Findings / Data Analysis

The section presents the findings of the study in the form of tables & figures along with the interpretation. Depending on the choice of research methodology, the page will have a detailed quantitative models, hypothesis testing, showing some basic descriptive statistics including mean, SD, regression. Or a qualitative analysis dealing with content or textual or case study description. We use SPSS / R / SAS / STATA / Minitab for analysis.

A brief Summary & Conclusion

In this chapter, we introduce three section viz., discussion, summary, and conclusion. The discussion chapter compares and contrasts the findings of previously published authors in line with the research questions. Since this is the heart of the dissertation, we ensure to develop analytics and critical thinking with reference to theoretical arguments grounded in the literature review. The other section would be just summary followed by the conclusion of main findings and recommendations.
