Dissertation (Part)

The US and the UK Master's Part/ Chapter-wise Dissertation Writing Service

Writing a dissertation is a daunting task as student need to produce an original piece of research work on a topic of special interest. However, writing a dissertation requires a range of planning and research skills as it demand specific writing style as per the university requirement. Understanding, Tutors India, only provide support for writing your full dissertation, but our service also extends support for writing part-dissertation chapter writing services. We can write starting from abstract or executive summary writing services, introduction chapter, literature review, theoretical framework chapter, hypotheses development, help with questionnaire development, research questions and objectives development, data analysis help, discussions, conclusions, recommendations, interview transcript analysis, ethical form filling, appendices, and any other help you may require with your dissertation. Even if you have a problem in identifying the right research design, identifying base for the tools, difficulties in identifying appropriate research gap, to write a "statement of the problem" section, identifying a right statistical tool for your data, data collection part, secondary research, and any others that you have.

Dissertation chapter is written with utmost care based on your specific university guidelines & Specifications

Part custom Dissertation writing services and thesis writing services at Tutors India are handled and written by the style, design, and format of an ideal dissertation required by the UK, Australia, and the US universities. We assist you to complete your part dissertation namely, a topic selection, research proposal writing, reflection journals for your dissertation, the introduction, the literature review, research methodology, presenting and discussing

Dissertation Research Proposal Features

We follow according to the specific university guidelines across the United States, United Kingdom, Australia, and other Asian Universities. Our part dissertation structure would consist of

■ Only Abstract Writing

We write abstract for your master's dissertation which would approximately contain 250 to 350 words. We complete the abstract after the full dissertation has been written that includes a brief summary of introduction or background, objectives, boundaries, methodology, the results of the dissertation research,

■ Only Acknowledgement Writing

A brief statement that ensures the following – we ensure to comment about family and friends at a minimum level while more concentration will be given on those who have given direct assistance. Further, the section will also provide assurance that the dissertation is own, evidence at your findings, a declaration to show the work complies with University regulation on plagiarism and a statement of the word count. Apart, a copy of the report appended in Loss-leaf format showing that the dissertation is passed through plagiarism software

■ Only Table of Content

The section will list the chapter headings, appendices, references along with the page numbers. Apart, there would be a separate list for lists of figures, tables, and abbreviations. We use Microsoft Word to create lists using the indexing and style functions.

■ Full Dissertation Title

A precise Title as approved by the University. The title would convey the ideas of your investigation, orient your readers to the topic, indicate the type of study you will conduct, population you target and geographical location.

■ Only Dissertation Introduction Chapter Writing – I

A Brief description of the topic, research questions, and research objectives. The section would provide necessary background information and provides readers with some sense of overall research including general territory, broad foundation (existing literature), the general scope, overview of the sections and finally should engage the readers

■ Aim and Overall Objective / Hypotheses Section Chapter Writing – II

A description what research want to achieve from carrying out this research. The section includes a clear statement of the research objectives, questions that researcher seeks to answer or the hypothesis. The section also includes original contributions of your study, with a detailed account of the points summarized in the introduction, and rationale

■ Literature, Context, background section writing– III

This should provide some insights on (a) studies that have been conducted previously in your research field (b) familiarity with major themes, (c) the range of theories scholars use to analyse their primary sources (d) gaps identified in the literature (e) further investigations you intend to pursue as part of this dissertation and (f) best methodologies.

■ The detailed research methodology Chapter writing – IV

The section is essential to the good dissertation. This section includes the overall methodological approach, Research design, strategy, qualitative or quantitative, research philosophy, target area, population, sample size, primary or secondary data collection, ethical consideration, pilot study, validity, reliability, & statistical analysis.

■ Results / Findings / Data Analysis Chapter Writing - V

The chapter presents the findings of the study in the form of tables & figures along with the interpretation. Depending on the choice of research methodology, the page will have a detailed quantitative models, hypothesis testing, showing some basic descriptive statistics including mean, SD, regression.

Or a qualitative analysis dealing with content or textual or case study description. We use SPSS / R / SAS / STATA / Minitab for analysis.

■ Discussion, Summary & Conclusion Chapter Writing - VI

In this chapter, we introduce three sections viz., discussion, summary, and conclusion. The discussion chapter compares and contrasts the findings of previously published authors in line with the research questions. Since this is the heart of the dissertation, we ensure to develop analytics and critical thinking concerning theoretical arguments grounded in the literature review. The other section would be just summary followed by the conclusion of main findings and recommendations.

■ Dissertation References / Citation Compliance

Work Cited, or sources cited (in-text) or list of sources cited while writing a dissertation. This will include peer-reviewed scholarly articles, textbooks, newspaper articles, annual reports, obtained from various database including ProQuest, Emerald, IEEE, Web of Science, Academic Complete, SciDirect, JSTOR, Elsevier

■ Bibliography & Appendices for your dissertation

Lists that have read but not cited will also be included. The section will inform the readers about various sources that also form the basis for the proposed study and methodology. Appendices for the dissertation may include experiment diagrams, questionnaire, permission for human subject testing, ethical forms, and reflection

■ Dissertation Formatting or Structuring Your Dissertation

We check for word count (e.g. 12,000 to 15,000 excludes abstract, references, and source of text translation should be 6,000 words while commentary 6,000 to 7,000 words), paper size, margin settings, line spacing, page numbering, text, font, align-
